Identifying Career Mentors

Mentor - A wise and trusted friend and guide.

In your life you will come across many people who will help you make decisions concerning your personal life, education and career. These people can provide strength and wisdom for your happiness and success in life. Friends, or mentors, can be parents, brothers, sisters, relatives, teachers, scout leaders, coaches, employers, co-workers, ministers, priests or other religious leaders.

A successful person is one who can identify and communicate with many mentor(s) in his/her life. No one can truly be happy and successful without the help and guidance of others. Each time you begin a new job you should search for a mentor in the new company. List below as many mentors you believe have made a difference in your life.
